KING GORIN'S GOOD RACE

EASILY RUNS AWAY FROM SLEETH IN LATONIA'S PRINCIPAL CONTEST.

Ben Hampson Wins at Last—Opportunity Scores from Useful Two-year-olds.—Owner Strang Gets Himself Into Trouble.

Latonia, Ky., October 17.—Cool weather prevailed here this afternoon, but it did not affect the attendance at Latonia, nor diminish interest in the racing. The card was again an unimportant one, seven dashes making up the offering, with an allowance affair at one mile and seventy yards serving as the head-liner. King Gorin ruled the favorite for it, was best and won easily from Sleeth, with Star Jasmine following closely. The winner was reserved behind Sleeth until straightened away for the stretch drive, where he came away with evident ease.

A poor band of maidens opened proceedings and Ben Hampson, the favorite, won from the outsider, Kenward, with Quin heading the others.

Charmeuse furnished the surprise of the second race, when, favored by a good send off, she was able to lead all the way. Clark M., so lightly regarded that he was grouped with others in the field, took second place.

Opportunity gave a good exhibition in the third race, in which he carried his full weight and beat a fairly good band of two-year-olds.

Corrigan & McKinney's Passing Fancy scored a lucky victory in the fifth race, when he just managed to get home in front of the suddenly-improved Bullion. The latter ran as if much the best and, but for getting caught in a jam in the first eighth, he would have won.

Today's betting was again of goodly proportions.

Trainer W. B. Jennings of the A. K. Macomber Stable has been anxious to have Boots reach here and with that end in view telegraphed last Saturday to have the horse shipped, but has not been advised yet if his wishes have been complied with.

For several days the stewards here have been quietly investigating the matter of a circular letter sent and signed by G. L. Strang, in which the latter submits a proposition and offers to furnish supposedly winning information. The letter in question was sent to a person in California and Strang admits having sent it. As the stewards deemed it against the best practices of the turf, they issued a ruling this afternoon, which bars the further entries of the Strang horses, embracing Samuel R. Meyer, Rhyme and Jane Straith. Strang is likewise part owner of Deliver and Chief Brown, but on the plea of William Perkins, who is also part owner, and is in no way connected with the sending out of the circular letter, to be allowed to dispose of Deliver and Jane Straith by auction.

The officials will give the request consideration. Commenting on the affair, the stewards said: "The turf was founded for the improvement of the thoroughbred, not for the purpose of fostering practices of this kind. The stewards are of the opinion that tipping bureaus are detrimental to the welfare of racing and should be discouraged."

Today work-outs over a fast track included the following:

KENILWORTH FEATURE TO RAOUL.

Windsor, Ont., October 17.—Aside from the feature race, the card at Kenilworth Park this afternoon brought out an ordinary band of racers. In the handicap Raoul took the measure of Dignity and Christie. It was a sprint of five and a half furlongs. Raoul was off forwardly and won with speed in reserve. Long prices ruled in the second race when Ella Jennings paid $26.10, and in the third when Safe Home, one of the field horses, paid $74.00 for a $2.00 ticket.

Jockey Dominick rode the two first winners, his ride on Vivian S. being especially good.

Sal Vanity was claimed out of the last race yesterday by R. Jarrett.

The entries of Dengro and Miss Jean will be refused in the future, on account of their fractiousness at the post in the third race.

The weather was cold which kept the attendance down.

Jockey J. Deavenport was suspended for two days for Starter McGinty.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

F. McC., Chicago. Yes, but the local practice is to the contrary.

A. F., Windsor, Ont. Daily Racing Form will publish charts of Tijuana and Havana racing.

H. W., Terre Haute, Ind. Henry Hutchison, not Hutchinson, is by Farandole—Lady Galopin and now nine years old.

T. T., Tulsa, Okla. Jockey Fogg's record in 1913 was mounts 63, first 14, second 13, third 12. In 1914 it was mounts 46, first 3, second 5, third 2.

Gus M., Alameda, Cal. Colors registered with the Jockey Club hold good anywhere in the United States, but an additional small registration fee is required in Kentucky and possibly on the Coast.

Subscriber, Chicago. Certainly not. There is no such thing as "out" for place or show in the mutuels except when the field is of three or four horses. As second choice in the race Kathleen was abundantly backed to show.

J. J. LILLIS TAKES THE STAKE RACE.

Added Starter in the Georgetown Handicap and Wins Going Away—Boots Shipped West.

Baltimore, Md., October 17.—J. J. Lillis, an added starter, accounted for today's feature race at Laurel, the Georgetown Handicap, a dash of three-quarters for all ages. There were eleven starters and Hanson was a heavily-backed favorite. In the early running H. P. Whitney's Regina flattered her backers by taking the lead and setting a fast pace. She retained command until straightened out in the homestretch, where the field bunched up and, in the final eighth, J. J. Lillis dashed out of the ruck to win going away by a length. The finish for second place was particularly close and the official placing made it Regina second and Startling third. Hanson left the barrier with the leaders and showed in second place until rounding the far turn, where he dropped back. He was never prominent during the remainder of the race. Marse Henry, another added starter in the race, failed to cut any figure in the running.

The colors of J. O. Talbott of Denver were prominent during the afternoon. This stable furnished the winners of the first two races in Cherry Ripe and Greentree. After the latter won he was advanced from $1,400 to $1,805 by H. G. Bedwell and was bought in.

The announcement has been made by general manager M. J. Winn that William H. Shelley will act as racing secretary at the meeting at Juarez next winter.

G. P. Burke was an arrival at Laurel this morning. He is here in search of material for racing in Cuba next winter. Mr. Burke is training for a syndicate of wealthy Cubans. He has fifteen horses now at Oriental Park. The property of Senor Eugerio Alvarez, Senor Augusto Lozarvolle and Senor Amanda Elsholghon. Senor Alvarez is an enthusiastic sportsman and quite a baseball fan. He came up from Cuba to attend the championship games at Brooklyn and Boston and is now in New York. In former years he raced in England and France. Among the two-year-olds in Senor Alvarez' stable is Fleeka Negra, a sister to Marion Goosby. Mr. Burke before returning to Cuba will engage a first class jockey to ride the horses he is training.

Flag Day pulled up lame after being worked this morning and was excused from starting by the stewards.

Trainer W. H. Karrick has decided not to ride Warscher for a few weeks, and probably not for the remainder of the year. The lad has not been riding as well as he should and Karrick thought that a rest would do him good.

H. J. McCarthy who is purchasing some thoroughbreds for some of his clients in the Green Spring Valley, with the idea of making hunters of them, this morning secured Aberfeldy from Eugene Finnegan.

After Dryad pulled up yesterday it was discovered that the horse had severed one of his tendons of his foreleg and he was presented to a local farmer, who will make an effort to patch him up.

Soldier was advanced to $1,105 and bought by Emil Herz after he won the seventh race yesterday. Herz is gathering a stable to race in Cuba.

Boots was shipped to Kentucky this afternoon. He was accompanied by the groom, who has taken care of him all the year.

Jockey A. Schuttinger has signed to ride for the Wickliffe Stable next year.

Emil Herz advanced Costumer from $400 to $905, but failed to secure him.

Infidel II. changed hands after his victory. J. W. Hedrick bid him up from $400 to $700 and secured him at the latter figure.

Shepherdess came out of the sixth race with a broken leg and had to be destroyed.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

The two-year-old filly Nettie Walcutt has been purchased by Frazier & Farris.

Harry Payne Whitney's good horse Pennant, winner of the Futurity of 1913, will not be seen under racing silks again, having been retired to the stud at Brookdale Farm in New Jersey.

The Laurel meeting thus far has shown the best racing in the history of the track, and the prospect is that the good showing will be kept up to the close of the meeting on the last day of the month.

The Men's Federation of Louisville has by vote expressed its disapproval of the projected plan for levying any kind of a tax in Kentucky which could be construed as a "tax on gambling," and instructed its executive secretary, C. J. Meddis, to communicate the sentiment of the body to Senator Hite Muffaker, chairman of the state tax commission.

If Mr. A. H. Cosden, for whom trainer "Bill" Garth will display his skill next season, can do as well with the thoroughbreds as in the standard-bred field, he will not be as long as some of the other rich men who have taken up racing in the United States in coming to a great measure of success. Mr. Cosden is the owner of The Real Lady, the champion two-year-old trotter, winner of the best stakes in Kentucky, and now holder of a record of 2:04¼, made in a race.—Francis Nelson in Toronto Globe.

The funeral of the late P. J. Millett took place at Knoxville, Tenn., Sunday afternoon from the Church of the Immaculate Conception, with interment in Cavalry Cemetery at the same place. The pallbearers included: John J. O'Dowd, of Cincinnati; Andrews J. Corey, of Covington; G. J. Ashe, Arthur Groves, Mayor John E McMillan, former mayor S. G. Heiskell, Thomas McFarland, Walter McCoy, J. J. Ashe, S. P. Condon, R. H. Gammon, Louis Vedder, Judge James F. Baker, Charles M. Mitchell and Professor Brown, all of Knoxville.

TWO-YEAR-OLD RACING AT NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, La., October 17.—Joseph A. Murphy, manager of the racing department of the Business Men's Racing Association of New Orleans, has announced that the association will offer a two-year-old race each day of the meeting.

"I have had so many requests from horsemen and breeders asking for this decision that it would seem our best interests will be served by offering the races. I am in receipt of a letter from a prominent breeder saying that the rule in respect to two-year-olds has lowered the average of yearlings in the Kentucky sales $200. I am in no position to judge of the correctness of this estimate. Many of the horsemen, who are to race with us, do not wish to divide their strings and I do not wish to waste my stalls with unavailable material.

"If all the governing bodies will adopt the French rule to race no two-year-olds until August the Business Men's Racing Association will abolish its two-year-old races, but two-year-old races at New Orleans in January and February are no earlier than two-year-old races in Kentucky and Maryland in April. Racing two-year-olds develops them. Over-racing ruins them. A two-year-old can be over-raced in September as easily as in January. Westy Hogan and Harry Kelly, the crack two-year-olds of the year, were developed in New Orleans last winter. My personal idea is that the breeders and horsemen have had too much tough sledding the past ten years to curtail their earning capacity until they get their feet under them."

$2 mutuels paid, Costumer, field, $151.50 straight, $12.30 place, $5.60 show; Blue Cap, $3.10 place, $2.80 show; Humiliation, $9.10 show.

Equivalent booking odds—Costumer, field, 7475 to 100 straight, 515 to 100 place, 180 to 100 show; Blue Cap, 55 to 100 place, 40 to 100 show; Humiliation, 355 to 100 show.

Winner—B. g, by Ogden—Masquerade (trained by J. A. Strode; bred by Mr. John E. Madden).

Went to post at 4:07. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. COSTUMER, after being close up from the start, finished fast and gamely and won going away. BLUE CAP raced into the lead in the stretch, but tired in the final drive. HUMILIATION closed a gap and was on the outside all the way. BILLY OLIVER and SALON ran well. The winner, entered for $400, was bid up to $905 and bought in.

Scratched—29768 Tinkle Bell, 114.

Overweights—Sureget, 2 pounds.

NEW TURN IN NEW ORLEANS FUSS.

New Orleans, La., October 17.—The introduction of an ordinance before the council, prohibiting horse racing in New Orleans, except during the time between January 1 and Mardi Gras Day, and H. D. "Curley" Brown's announcement that he would conduct racing here this winter, if any one else did, were the features in the local racing situation today.

Mayor Behrman had the ordinance drawn up and, after it was read at the council session, it was laid on the table, where it will rest a week before the final adoption next week. The introduction of the ordinance was the first official act of the city administration to show its hand in the racing controversy. The mayor has been amply advised as to the legal status of such an ordinance and, before deciding to introduce it, had several conferences with the members of the council and his legal advisers.

Mayor Behrman again reiterated his statement of yesterday that he would favor the local people. He said that he was trying to be neutral between the Brown interests and the Business Men's Racing Association, but that if it came to the point where he would have to decide in favor of one or the other, naturally, he would favor home men.

The ordinance means that the race meeting here during 1917 will last only forty-four days as Mardi Gras is February 20. In 1918 Mardi Gras will be on February 12, which will make the meeting even shorter.

H. D. Brown announced later in the afternoon that he might accept the offer of $395,000 of the Business Men's Racing Association to buy the City Park race track. This would end the squable. Mr. Brown says that he will leave the matter of the sale in the hands of his representatives, whom he refused to name.

Covington, Ky., October 17.—When the case of the city of Covington against the Latonia Agricultural Association, to compel the payment of a license fee of $100 for each race run at the Latonia track, was presented to Judge Edmons, in police court, a motion of acting city solicitor John Richmond that the facts be presented to the court in briefs was sustained. The case was continued until October 21.

Attorney Harvey Myers, representing the race track, was accompanied in court by General Manager John Hachmeister and Secretary Frank J. Bruen. Facts as to the manner of running races and jurisdiction of the city to assess a license fee will be presented to the court in the briefs. Opposing attorneys were unable to agree on the law governing the case.

Manager Hachmeister took occasion to point to numerous improvements which have been kept up in Latonia by the race track officials. Attorney Myers questioned the right of the city to pass the ordinance, and declared the more the track officials do for the city the worse they are treated.

If the city were to recover $100 for each race run at Latonia during the present meeting, which lasts nineteen days, the racing association would be required to pay to the city treasurer $13,300. Safety Director Kluemper was instructed by the city solicitor to continue citing the track officials daily for failure to pay the license.

THOROUGHBREDS TO BE WELL RECOGNIZED.

New York, October 17.—New directors of the National Horse Show Association have this year recognized the utility of the thoroughbred horse and in consequence there will be more opportunity at the coming show for horses registered by the Jockey Club than ever have been presented before at a show in Madison Square Garden. In the program for the association's thirty-first annual exhibition from November 11 to 17 there are classes exclusively for thoroughbred saddle horses, thoroughbred hunters, thoroughbred polo ponies and thoroughbred sires suitable for getting cavalry horses.

John E. Madden, the most extensive breeder of thoroughbred race horses in the United States, if not in the world, has accepted an invitation to judge the thoroughbred stallions at this year's show. The saddle horses will be judged by Lady Beck of London, Ont., and James G. Marshall of New York, while H. Y. Colt of Geneseo, N. Y., Henry L. Bell of Bayside, N. Y., and Richard Wallach of Warrenton, Va., will judge the thoroughbred hunters.

RACERS SENT EAST FROM LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., October 17.—The two-year-old Nebraska, the yearling brown colt by Ogden—White Owl and the yearling brown filly by Ogden—Quebec, purchased last week by William Garth from John E. Madden for Ral Parr of Baltimore, were shipped today to Benning.

William Morrissey, a young rider in the employ of G. W. J. Bissell, today underwent an operation for appendicitis.

$2 mutuels paid, Charmeuse, $9.70 straight, $4.90 place, $4.40 show; Clark M., field, $7.30 place, $4.80 show; Lukemae, $14.50 show.

Equivalent booking odds—Charmeuse, 385 to 100 straight, 145 to 100 place, 120 to 100 show; Clark M., field, 265 to 100 place, 140 to 100 show; Lukemae, 625 to 100 show.

Winner—B. m, by Mazagan—Bewitcher (trained by A. L. Denny; bred by Mr. Johnson N. Camden).

Went to post at 2:27. At post 5 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. CHARMEUSE acted badly at the post, but was away forwardly, showed the most speed and stayed well in the final drive. CLARK M. came fast through the stretch. LUKEMAE raced forwardly most of the way. MARTRE tired badly. EDDIE DELLING quit badly. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Overweights—Clark M., 2½ pounds; Martre, 2.

Winner—Ch. c, by Transvaal—Ethel Simpson (trained by A. Baker; bred by Messrs. S. K. Hughes & Co.).

Went to post at 3:20. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. KING GORIN was hard held until rounding into the stretch, then came away to win as his rider pleased. SLEETH showed the most early speed, but was done after going three-quarters and had to be hard ridden to outstay STAR JASMINE. The latter raced forwardly all the way. DOROTHY DEAN closed a good gap.

Overweights—Donerail, 3 pounds.
